Verbal ERA Battle Ends Inconclusively

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The latest verbal battle in Kentucky over the proposed Equal Rights Amendment to the U. S. Constitution has ended as others have — inconclusively.

Hundreds of women argued for or against ERA in a public hearing Monday at the Capitol. And after more than three hours of debate, the Legislative Committee on Elections and Constitutional Amendments adjourned, without taking any action.

At issue was the legislature's approved in 1972 of the proposed amendment which would ban all forms of sex discrimination.

A movement is afoot to rescind that approval in the 1976 legislative session, and that caused the matter to be brought up again.

"I am here to tell you how the Equal Rights Amendment will affect homosexual marriages," said Mrs. Nancy Ray of Graves County, who opposes ERA.

There were groans from the gallery when she made that statement. Applause followed while she asserted the ERA would legalize homosexual marriages and turn the nation's morals upside down.

An estimated 500 women were in and around the Capitol during the proceedings, and the 250 in the House chamber boomed with little restraint.

Some milled around the halls for what they thought would be the climactic moment. But the finale was anticlimactic as the committee took no action.

Rep. Nick Kafeolis, D-Bowling Green, wanted to kill the motion to rescind ERA.

Rep. Lloyd Clapp, D-Wingo, the chairman, informed him there was no such motion.

Tehn Rep. Mae Street Kidd, D-Louisville, moved for adjournment, with Sen. Tom Mobley, D-Louisville, commenting that nothing the committee did was going to affect the 1976 General Assembly anyway.

Clapp told the assembled factions after the hearing that the committee's purpose was merely to gather material for the next session.

It was fairly easy to tell who was on which side. The anti-ERA women all wore something pink.

The sides gathered in separate rooms in the Capitol hours before the hearing to plan tactics within the limited time allotted.

The star speaker for the anti-ERA faction was Phyllis Schlafly, a conservative columnist and commentator.

The speaker arousing some of the greatest response from the pro-ERA group was Katherine Peden of Louisville, a former state commerce commissioner who referred to Miss Schlafly as "the Illinois trespasser."

Miss Peden made her point at the outset by declaring, "I am a native Kentuckian."

Miss Schlafly was not a scheduled speaker on the agenda, and it was learned the pro-ERA forces tried vainly to block her speech on the ground she is not from Kentucky.

The hours of arguments, punctuated often by applause, yielded little that has not been said on the national scene.

In general the pro-ERA camp said it was about time women were treated like humans and that ERA would not cause the disruption and chaos alleged by opponents.

The anti-ERA forces asserted the proponents don't really know what the

Project Funds Are Approved

FRANKFORT, Ky. — The Bureau of Vocational Education in the Kentucky Department of Education has approved funding for the Articulation Project for Allied Health in Murray and Madisonville.

Money for the $18,659 project comes primarily from funds allotted the state by the Vocational Education Amendments of 1968. This is to be a cooperative effort by the Madisonville State Vocational-Technical School and Murray State University.

The Project's purpose is to develop a system of credit transfer for vocational and college students in the health field. Presently, vocational students in certified respiratory therapy technician programs cannot transfer credit to continue their education to the associate or baccalaureate level.

Ray L. Dunn, Allied Health Coordinator at Murray State University, is the project director.

Two Sugar Companies Announce Price Hikes; GM Indicates Rise

By G. G. LABELLE
Associated Press Writer

Two leading sugar companies are increasing wholesale prices today and General Motors Corp. has given new indications of a rise in 1976 car prices.

GM indicated Monday it will hike its 1976 car prices by 6 per cent or about $300 a car. And the National Bureau of Economic Research said it's ready to officially announce a recession has been going on.

Meanwhile, two reports indicated an end to the recession, though they disagreed about how strong recovery would be, and the stock market took another drop amid fears of interest rates rising.

The Dow Jones industrial average was off 10.71 at 861.08 Monday, with analysts laying the drop to a continuing rise in short-term interest rates and expectations that the Federal Reserve may push a policy of tighter credit to avoid a renewal of inflation.

The two-cent per pound hike in wholesale grocery sugar prices announced by Amstar Corp. and Sucrest Corp. reverses an eight-month decline in the wholesale price of sugar.

The increase, blamed on higher costs for raw sugar, puts Amstar's wholesale price at 26.1 cents per pound and Sucrest's at 25.9 cents per pound. It will be up to grocers whether they pass along the hike to consumers.

The indication of higher 1976 auto prices came in GM's confirmation that it privately notified dealers last month of a maximum hike of 6 per cent to fleet buyers. This was seen as a sign of price hikes planned for all GM vehicles — including those sold to individuals.

A National Bureau of Economic Research spokesman said, meanwhile, that the bureau's upcoming quarterly publication will announce that the nation has been going through a recession.

The private, nonprofit organization — which has been accepted by the government as the official word on when recessions and booms occur — will say the current recession began in November 1973 as the oil producing countries began their oil embargo.

"Certainly the country knew we were in a recession without our having to say so," the spokesman said. "But we don't come off with these announcements haphazardly. And an earlier announcement might have been psychologically damaging and hindered a recovery."

Signs of a recovery were noted by the National Association of Purchasing Agents, Inc., and the University of Michigan's quarterly consumer survey.

Faye Wells Earns Coveted Rating Of Certified Professional Secretary

Mrs. Faye Wells, 816 Sha-Wa Circle, has become the first Calloway County recipient of the coveted rating of Certified Professional Secretary (CPS).

A secretary for 19 years, Mrs. Wells successfully completed all sections of a comprehensive examination administered by the Institute for Certifying Secretaries, an international organization, to achieve the status.

The six-part CPS examination, given annually and based on an analysis of secretarial work with emphasis on judgment, understanding and administrative ability, covers such areas as:

Environmental relationships in business; business and public policy; economics of management; financial analysis and the mathematics of business; communications and decision making; and recommended office procedures.

Each section of the examination is given during a two-day session at one of Institute's testing centers, one of which is located at Murray State University. Candidates have five years in which to complete all six sections of the examination.

At Murray State University, where she has been employed for the past seven years, Mrs. Wells is secretary to M. C. Garrott, director of information and public services; Joe Tom Erwin, sports information specialist, and the University's radio-television specialist, a post held until recently by Gil Gilbert.

Before joining the information and public services staff, she was a special projects secretary in the office of former President Harry M. Sparks for one year, and three years was secretary to the University ombudsman and the director of the Waterfield Student Union Building.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ralph Clark, Route 2, Hazel, Mrs. Wells also was manager and secretary to the superintendent of the Murray Natural Gas

Mansfield Says Gasoline To Be $1; Ford Says No

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford says the price of gasoline probably will not reach $1 a gallon, but Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield predicts there's a good chance it will.

Mansfield told newsmen on Capitol Hill Monday that the retail price will rise to $1 if oil-producing countries go ahead with threatened price hikes and if Ford's energy policies are carried out.

He also attacked recent price increases by major oil firms, amounting to about 3 cents a gallon. "I do not believe the profits of the oil companies are so scarce that they needed to impose these July 1 increases," Mansfield said.

At the White House, Press Secretary Ron Nessen was asked if Ford thinks gasoline prices might go to 85 or 90 cents a gallon and whether the President would consider that excessive. Nessen said Ford "sees no indication that it could go that high."

Nessen also accused Congress of dragging its feet on the President's energy program, which calls for increased taxes on gasoline with much of the money rebated to the public.

"The people complaining when they pulled up to the gas pump this weekend ought to tell their congressmen and senators, who are home this week, that they want to start getting that money back through a tax rebate which the President has proposed," Nessen said.

Accident Fatal To Benton Girl

A 15-year old Benton girl was killed in a one-car accident late Monday in Marshall County, according to Kentucky State Police.

Charlotte A. Bell, Route Two, Benton, was pronounced dead at the scene after the car in which she was riding went out of control and overturned.

The accident occurred on Kentucky Highway 348, one mile west of Benton, according to Ted Thompson, the state trooper who investigated the accident.

According to Thompson's report, Miss Bell was a passenger in a car driven by 17-year old David W. Gordon, Route Eight, Benton, when the car went out of control on a hill crest, struck a sewer culvert, and overturned. The accident occurred at 11:30 p.m. Monday.

Survivors include her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell, Route Two, Benton; grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Colvin Fisk; and Mr. and Mrs. Tolen Bell; a great-grandmother Mrs. Lucy Fisk; a great-grandfather Bert Smith; one sister, Kelley Sue Bell, and a brother, Frankie Lynn; all of Route Two Benton.

Funeral services will be at one p.m. Thursday in the Collier Chapel with Rev. Mayo Mansfield officiating. Burial will be in the Hillcrest Cemetery. The Collier Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

THE INDEPENDENCE DAY FIREWORKS DISPLAY originally scheduled for July 4 but postponed on two occasions because of inclement weather, came off with a big BANG at the City Park last night. The dazzling display, sponsored by the Murray Park and Recreation Department, thrilled the many youngsters and adults who gathered at the park.

MYSTERY MAN WINNER—David King, president of the Murray-Calloway County Jaycees, presents season passes to the Calloway County Fair to Mrs. Bill Collins, as the first winner of the Jaycee-sponsored "Mystery Man" contest. Gedric Paschall, left, was the first "mystery man" in this year's contest. Another mystery man has been selected and the lucky person who asks him "Do you have the tickets to the Calloway County Fair July 14-19" will be awarded a set of season tickets to fair events. With Mrs. Collins are her daughter Reneta, and her niece, Lee Ann Lockhart.

Special Events Planned This Week

By Officials, Land Between Lakes

Visitors to Land Between The Lakes this week can take a step into the areas past by joining the naturalist as he explores the area through sketching, a stream stroll, photography, or a moonlight walk. These and other events including a seven-mile hayride and cookout are on tap at Land Between The Lakes this week to delight all ages.

Activities to please any camper can be found at Hillman Ferry, Rushing Creek, and Piney family campgrounds. Hikes, movies, organized games, or simply being alone are typical of things the camper can enjoy.

Besides the three family campgrounds, 24 Informal Use Areas along Kentucky Lake and Lake Barkley are available to the public. Facilities include chemical toilets, picnic tables and grills, and launching ramps. There is a $2 per night fee charge at the family campgrounds, while camping at an Informal Use Area is free.

Reservations are now being taken for Day-Camping at Land Between The Lakes. Any organized group may register for one-day camps where college students gaining on-the-job experience assist group leaders in demonstrations and training in outdoor skills, sports, and environmental education. The program is open to groups six years of age and older and reservations may be made by contacting Recreation Services at 502-924-5602.

Adams, Boyden, King, Galloway Gardens Visited By Members

The Summer Garden Tour for the Garden Department of the Murray Woman's Club was held with the members meeting at 1:00 p.m. at the clubhouse to view a film entitled "The Deciduous Forest," after which the group toured four yards.

Mrs. John H. Adams, 917 North 16th Street, a Department member, offered her yard for viewing as an example of a natural setting using native shrubs and trees.

For contrast, the tour progressed to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Boyden on Doran Road. Here, carefully landscaped areas were viewed, ranging from topiary trees and rock gardens to rose gardens.

Next, Mrs. Gene King, 1508 Belmont, welcomed the group, and while escorting them around her yard pointed out a large variety of appropriately used foundation and boundary shrubs and trees.

To see carefully tended rose gardens and perennial and annual beds, the group visited the residence of Rev. and Mrs. M. C. Galloway, 519 South 6th. Mrs. Galloway is a Garden Department member.

Refreshments were served at the clubhouse following the tour. Hostesses were Mrs. Peter Whaley, Mrs. Fred Morton, Mrs. Fred Cotham, and Mrs. John Adams.

Ladies Day Golf To Be Held Wednesday

The regular ladies day golf will be held at the Murray Country Club on Wednesday, July 9, with Peggy Billington as golf hostess.

Parings will be made at the tee at nine a.m. A luncheon will be served at noon with Frances Matarazzo as chairman of the hostesses.

MANAGE ARTHRITIS

For arthritis, a balanced diet is best. Choose a wide variety of foods from the four-food-groups—the meat group, the milk group, fruit and vegetables, and enriched or whole grain breads and cereals. No food causes or cures arthritis. But good general nutrition and sufficient rest will help you to manage your arthritis more successfully.

Pool Party, Oaks Club Friday Night

A Pool Party will be held at the Oaks Country Club for seventh and eighth grade members on Friday, July 11, from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m.

Each member may bring two non-member guests, and a charge of fifty cents per person will be made.

In charge of arrangements are Jan Baker, Ila Brown, and Joyce Thomas.

Luncheon Planned

By Golden Age Club

The Golden Age Club will hold its monthly potluck luncheon Friday, July 11, at twelve noon at the social hall of the First United Methodist Church.

In charge of arrangements will be Mr. and Mrs. O. C. McLemore, Mrs. Meme Mattingly, Mrs. Artis Fuqua, Mrs. Birdie Parker, and Miss Erin Montgomery.

It Marks A Spot

Mark the spot for the nail to hang a picture by moistening the forefinger and placing it on the spot.

Garrison And Hutchens Wedding To Be Saturday

Plans have been completed by Miss Shiela Garrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cassel Garrison of Murray, for her marriage to Michael Earl Hutchens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hutchens, Sr., of Hopkinsville.

The vows will be read on Saturday, July 12, at six p.m. at the Cherry Corner Baptist Church with Rev. Roy Gibson officiating. Music will be by Miss Lucy Forrest, organist, and Jimmy Burke, soloist.

Miss Martha Hendon will be the maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Miss Cindy Garrison and Miss Jane Hutchens, sister of the bride-elect and groom-elect respectively.

Ray Hutchens, Sr., father of the groom-elect, will be best man. Groomsmen will be Tom Whittemore and Tom Lossner. Owen Garrison and Kenny Stubblefield will be ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held in the fellowship hall of the church. All relatives and friends are invited to attend the wedding and the reception.

WMU Day Thursday At Jonathan Creek

The annual WMU Day will be held at the Jonathan Creek Baptist Assembly on Thursday, July 10, at 9:30 a.m. This is for women from all churches in the area.

Featured speakers will be Mrs. Paul Grossman of Senegal, Africa, and Miss Rosa Feichter. A nursery for small children and special activities for older children will also be included in the day's events.

Dear Abby

Wives Should Help Give Big Love Scene a Happy Ending

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1975 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: Two years ago I started a penpal relationship with a man in prison, and we exchanged pictures. He said he "fell in love with my picture," but after we corresponded a while, he realized he really loved me. I fell in love with him, too, crazy as it may seem.

Well, he was released four months ago, and we haven't seen each other yet because I have been putting it off. We live 1,600 miles apart and he offered to send me plane fare, but I've been making excuses such as "I've been sick."

The truth is that I've gained so much weight since that picture I sent him was taken, I am ashamed for him to see me.

He has a job now and said he would come to see me, but his parole officer says he has to wait a while. So, for now I am safe.

I am 23, and he is 26. I am afraid that if I put him off any longer, I will lose him. Can you help me?

FAT AND ASHAMED

DEAR ASHAMED: First, tell him the truth. (He may not mind.) Then, see a doctor and get on a diet you can live with. If there's an Overeaters Anonymous chapter in your area, join it. If Overeaters Anonymous can't help you, nobody can. Good luck and God bless.

DEAR ABBY: About that wife who complained because her husband showed her no affection after lovemaking: She remarked, "If a man would just take his lady love in his arms and hold her, and maybe give her a little kiss on the nose afterward, it would mean so much."

In response, you wrote that you wondered how many women suffered in silence from such a seemingly minor oversight.

My question is: "Whose oversight is it?" If the lady wants a hug or kiss on the nose, why can't she give HIM one in the hope that he'll respond in kind? Why assume that it's the man's responsibility to know what's going on in the woman's mind? By what mysterious talent are men supposed to know this?

If a woman is so stupid that she just suffers in silence, it's no wonder that she doesn't get the kind of attention she wants.

I would say: "Do unto others."

A MAN

DEAR MAN: My reply was intended to tip off the man who rolls over and starts snoring three minutes after the big love scene. It's hard to kiss a man on the nose when he turns his back to you.

DEAR ABBY: I appreciate your answer to the young lady who inferred that because her boyfriend did needlepoint, he was less of a man.

I've been doing needlepoint for a year, and I find it tremendous therapy for the nerves. (I do crewel and crochet, too.) I still have time to work 60 hours a week, play tennis, chess and backgammon. And in case you're wondering about my masculinity, my wife is expecting in December.

PETE IN SCHNECTADY

DEAR PETE: Congratulations—on all counts.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (20¢) envelope.

Your Individual Horoscope

Frances Drake

FOR WEDNESDAY,

JULY 9, 1975

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

ARIES

(Mar. 21 to Apr. 20)

Leave the status quo in all phases of your life unless you are forced to make changes because of some unexpected developments. But, even then, act reservedly.

TAURUS

(Apr. 21 to May 21)

Personal relationships highly congenial. In fact, your career status may be boosted by an influential person.

GEMINI

(May 22 to June 21)

Extravagance in general not recommended, but spending on business entertaining now justified if good will results.

CANCER

(June 22 to July 23)

Don't let loyalty to an associate involve you in a dubious situation. It's a day for being strictly conventional.

LEO

(July 24 to Aug. 23)

The use of an old strategy or piece of advice may be your best stand-by now. Look out for things "offbeat" or out-of-context, however. They could mislead.

VIRGO

(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

Especially favored under propitious influences: research, scientific and technological experiments, outdoor interests, LIBRA

(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)

Job matters may require some special attention, perhaps a change of method. A state of readiness advised — to cope with the unexpected.

SCORPIO

(Oct. 24 to Nov. 23)

Unusual tact needed in domestic and social circles. Don't "make waves" or stir up needless dissension — only too easily done now if you are not alert.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)

Aspects stimulate your knack for handling matters which involve many persons. Especially favored: legal matters, government work and mediation between opposing forces.

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)

Someone will throw down the gauntlet. The challenge will stimulate you and give you a bright idea — if you get busy at once.

AQUARIUS

(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)

Be objective and watch for opportune moments to advance your interests. Combine your best ideas with those of others — for the benefit of all.

PISCES

(Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)

Fine Neptune influences. Be on the lookout for good leads, projects with substantial background. Maritime interests, creative pursuits and travel especially favored.

YOU BORN TODAY are realistic, steadfast and extremely meticulous in handling details. Through your talents and personality, it seems as if you were made for service to mankind for, whatever you do, that will be the ultimate end. You may fulfill your mission through an important invention, through writing, lecturing or teaching; may even hit upon a great scientific discovery — especially in the field of medicine — or, with your great love of heritage and tradition, become an outstanding historian or a journalist interpreting current events to the ultimate benefit of future historians. Even if you turn to art, which you may well do, your painting, music or writing will carry a "message." Traits to curb: impatience, hypersensitivity, jealousy. Birthdate of: Henry Hallam, Eng. historian; Elias Howe, inventor of the sewing machine.

Murray Chapter Of PWP Plans Meeting

Murray Chapter of Parents Without Partners will meet Thursday, July 10, at eight p. m. at the United Campus Ministry building on North 15th Street.

Mrs. Harlan Hodges, well known speaker and dramatist, will present a special program. Baby sitting services will be provided. All members and prospective members are urged to attend. PWP is for parents single for reason of death, divorce, separation, or never having been married.

State Officers Of International Reading Association Visit Here

Dorothy Jones, president of Kentucky State Council of International Reading Association (KSC-IRA), Joe Clark, state coordinator, and Judy Lay, president-elect recently visited the new Speech and Hearing building on the Murray State University campus.

The purpose of their meeting was to see Kentucky's new headquarters for KSC-IRA housed on the third floor of the new building in the Speech and Hearing building.

The Murray Area Council of KSC-IRA is quite proud that this area was chosen as the headquarters for the state council. The officers were escorted through the area by past president, Dr. Yancey Watkins, Associate Professor of Reading at MSU.

A meeting was also held to discuss plans for the Kentucky

State Council's Fall Conference to be held October 10 and 11.

The Murray Area Council will help sponsor this, the first such conference in this area. The tentative itinerary includes a speaker prominent in the field of Reading, a large display of teacher-made materials from KSC-IRA local councils, and several short institutes. The Murray Area Council invites anyone interested in the improvement of Reading to become involved in this event by contacting Johnna Puttnoff, 1605 Miller Ave., Murray, Ky. 42071, 753-7986 or Judy Mull, Box 514, Cadiz, Ky. 42211, 522-6264.

Let Tom Write It

Do something well, and they'll keep piling work on you. Thomas Jefferson may have been thinking about this truism when it came time to write the Declaration of Independence.

The Continental Congress set up a five-man committee to prepare the Declaration. Included were Robert Livingston, New York; Roger Sherman, Connecticut; Benjamin Franklin, Pennsylvania; John Adams, Massachusetts, and Jefferson from Virginia.

THIS GROUP was fully capable of thinking lofty thoughts. But it soon became apparent that somebody had to get down to the drudgery of putting words on paper.

Livingston and Sherman just weren't literary types. Franklin could have done it, but he said he was sick. So it came down to Adams and Jefferson.

Years later, Adams recalled: "The committee met, discussed the subject, and then appointed Mr. Jefferson and me to make the draught. Jefferson proposed to me to make the draught."

"I said, 'I will not.' 'You should do it.' 'Oh, no.' 'Why will you not?'" asked

Jefferson. "You ought to do it."

"I will not."

"Why?"

"Reason enough."

"What can be your reasons?"

"Reason first—You are a Virginian, and a Virginian ought to appear at the head of this business. Reason second—I am obnoxious, suspected and unpopular. You are very much otherwise. Reason third—You can write ten times better than I can."

"Well," said Jefferson, "if you are decided, I will do as well as I can."

SO JEFFERSON SPENT two weeks molding the ideas and feelings of the Congress into ringing prose. Then Congress debated, and amended—and in so doing killed what Jefferson considered some of his best writing.

But finally the document—certainly one of the most important in the world's history—was accepted.

And Jefferson didn't even get a byline, which sometimes is all a writer has to show for his effort.

We never know which of Jefferson's favorite phrases were overtaken by the editing pen, but it reads very well as declarations go.

Garrott's Galley

Now Ed Chrisman Knows How He Became Rotary President

By M. C. Garrott

Ed Chrisman, in assuming the presidency of the Murray Rotary Club July 3 and in his characteristically humble style, remarked:

"I have often wondered how this honor has come to me with so many more men in the club with talents far greater than mine. Looking over this group here today and seeing men like Bill Furgerson, Tommy Brown, Gene Tarry and others. 'Then I know why I was named president of the club.'"

At another point, Ed noted that he, after looking over the long list of past presidents of the 51-year-old club, apparently was the only "foreigner" to hold office.

"Other than Bob Moyer, who practically is a native of Murray and Calloway County," he said, "all the others seem to be native sons."

Then pausing for a moment, he said, "But that's not going to affect my ego in the least."

We in Rotary are looking forward to a great year under Ed's colorful leadership. There's never a dull moment when he is at the lectern.

Last month when Paul Deitzel, the new Ohio Valley Conference commissioner, was the principal speaker, Ed, as vice-president, was presiding in the absence of the president, Ted Billington, who along with his wife, Joan, was attending the Rotary International convention in Montreal, Canada.

The commissioner had strongly emphasized that he would see that the conference rules were strictly complied with and that his decisions would be based solidly upon them.

At the conclusion of the commissioner's remarks, Ed stood up and thanked him for his participation in the program. Then he said, "We especially applaud your comments regarding the conference rules and how you intend to follow them to the letter in making your decisions."

"We just want you to know that we think this is great—just as long as those decisions are in our favor."

The way Ed takes over reminds me of an automotive maintenance school I was involved in during "the big war" down at Fort Sam Houston, now in the very heart of San Antonio, Tex.

The post commander, a pretty rough old colonel, had decreed that every officer on the post should attend a school in "first echelon maintenance." That was the classification at that time of the level of maintenance the driver could perform on his vehicle to help prevent other, more expensive repairs.

Our unit was designated the organization to set up and operate the school, which we proceeded to do, naturally.

One of our instructors was a rather brash young first lieutenant from somewhere up in New Jersey, and the day he stepped up to the microphone for the first time to lead the instruction, he looked out over those 100 or so officers standing in front of vehicles with the hoods raised.

There were full colonels, lieutenant colonels, majors, captains and on down through warrant officers, all standing there waiting, some rather arrogantly, to start.

"Gentlemen," he said in a strong, authoritative voice, "there are many people in the Army today who know more about preventative automotive maintenance than I do, but looking over the group gathered here this morning, I do not see any of them with us, so let's get to work."

All of which brings to mind one more story about the speaker who was lecturing on forest preservation.

"I don't suppose," he said, "that there is a person in the house who has done a single thing to conserve our timber resources."

Silence ruled for several seconds. Then a weak voice from the rear of the room was heard to remark:

"I once shot a woodpecker."

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Tuesday, July 8, the 189th day of 1975. There are 176 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1940, the government of Norway moved to London after 62 days of fierce fighting against Nazi invaders in World War II.

On this date: In 1663, King Charles II of England granted a charter to Rhode Island.

In 1822, the English poet, Percy Shelley, drowned when his boat capsized in the Italian Gulf of Spezia.

In 1898, William Jennings Bryan pleaded for his silver money policy in his famous "Cross of Gold" speech in Chicago.

In 1919, President Woodrow Wilson received a tumultuous welcome in New York as he returned from the peace conference at Versailles.

In 1944, the World War II Battle of Saipan was won by American forces. In 1951, the city of Paris celebrated the 2,000th anniversary of its founding.

Ten years ago: President Lyndon Johnson nominated Henry Cabot Lodge to resume his post as the U.S. Ambassador to South Vietnam to replace retiring Maxwell Taylor.

Five years ago: President Richard Nixon said he would ask Congress to empower American Indian groups to take over federally financed programs for their benefit.

One year ago: Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau and his Liberal Party were the winners in national elections in Canada.

Today's birthdays: Vice President Nelson Rockefeller is 67 years old. Singer Steve Lawrence is 40.

Thought for today: No excellent soul is exempt from a mixture of madness—Aristotle, Greek philosopher, 384-322 B.C.

Division Vets Sought

Dear Editor:

Once more we would like to use your newspaper to locate veterans of the 2nd Armored "Hell On Wheels" Division for our reunion, July 30-August 3, at the Marriott Inn, Indianapolis, Ind.

Years ago our entire roster was lost. Many "Hell On Wheelers" know nothing of our association and this is one of the few ways we have of locating them.

For more information, vets may contact Loren O. Guge, 910 Dye Road, Kokomo, Indiana - 46901. Wives and children are invited.

Thank You.

Yours truly,

Funny Funny World

Jim Bishop: A good writer is not, per se, a good book critic. No more so than a good drunk is automatically a good bartender. Somerset Maugham: What has influenced my life more than anything else has been my stammer. Had I not stammered I would probably have gone to Cambridge... perhaps have become a don and every now and then published a dreary book about French literature.

Bob Hope: I'm not sure I like playing golf with Billy Graham. He has a direct line upstairs. Once I putted at a hole and it healed over.

FARM BILL REVEALS OUT MIDDLEMEN

SENATOR JOHN TOWER (Texas) "... I am introducing today the Farmers Market Act of 1975, a bill (S. 1985) to encourage the direct marketing of agricultural commodities from farmers to consumers. This is a modest proposal in terms of investment by the Federal Government, but it will have significant impact on the prices received by farmers, and the prices paid by consumers for farm products."

"In addition, consumers are able to obtain farm products of higher quality for their food dollars."

"Before the advent of today's gleaming supermarket system, open markets were the primary system of distributing agricultural products from farmers to consumers. Today, such farmers markets, and derivations of the concept of direct farmer-consumer marketing, can serve as a valuable, and economically viable, alternative to the shopping center supermarket."

"The advantage of the direct farmer-consumer marketing is that the costs of the middleman are eliminated. These marketing costs which stand between the farmers income and the consumer's costs, represent 60 per cent of every food dollar."

That 60 per cent represents money spent by consumers which never reaches the farmer.

"Potentially, farmers markets can double the prices received by farmers and reduce costs for the consumer by 20 per cent."

"The Farmers Market Act of 1975 is not limited to assisting the development of traditional farmers markets. The innovative thrust of this bill involves pilot programs sponsored by the USDA which would foster techniques of direct marketing of agricultural commodities."

"The Farmers Market Act of 1975 authorizes appropriations of $5 million for the program, and such sums as are necessary to conduct the annual survey, and compile the annual report. These sums are insignificant in comparison to the number of Americans who will benefit from the Farmers Market Act."

CRUMP'S GRASS ROOTS COMMENT

S. 1985 will get the attention of every merchant who retails farm produce. It will also get the attention of every individual who is included in the army of employees who make up the "middleman." This bill would likely have been buried in the Congressional Record if the Record were not scanned every day.

Breaking Tobacco Habit

By F. J. L. Blassingame, M.D.

BLASSINGAME

It is very difficult to break the habit of using tobacco in any form, especially cigarettes.

Tobacco does not produce addiction, common in the use of opiates, but habituation can be deep-rooted from tobacco, its crippling effects who are chronically nicotine being the most active ingredient.

Experienced physicians often find that women who are heavy, regular users of tobacco have more difficulty stopping its use than men who are equally "hooked."

Studies show a relationship between smoking and heart disease. Nicotine narrows the arteries, and it also raises the level of stomach acid, an undesirable effect in persons prone to peptic ulcer. Smoke contains many ingredients, some of which are irritants to the respiratory tract.

These result in chronic coughing, excess mucus and changes in the cells lining the breathing passages. Some persons develop emphysema and chronic bronchitis, becoming pulmonary cripples who are chronically short of breath on slight exertion.

Cancer, particularly of the throat and lung, occurs more frequently in smokers, and the incidence of malignancy in other organs, such as the bowel and bladder, is higher among them.

Smoking is an unclean habit and often objectionable to family and friends. Public opinion is causing a separation of the smoker from the nonsmoker. Smoking is a fire hazard and is expensive.

No medication is available to help the smoker stop the use of tobacco. To stop requires decision, will power and motivation. Stop cold—not gradually. Brag about your decision, talking it over frequently with associates. Sometimes it is helpful to join a group that is stopping. One puff can start the habit all over again.

The best prevention is not to start the use of tobacco.

Q. Mrs. P. F. asks what is meant by tachycardia.

A: Tachycardia means excessive rapidity in the beating of the heart and usually refers to a heart rate of 100 per minute or faster. Some forms of tachycardia are harmless and normal, such as a response of the heart rate to exercise. However, other forms are of consequence, depending on the cause of the rapid rate, especially if it persists. A diagnosis by a physician is important.

Q. Mrs. N. R. wants to know if I think that medicine should develop specialists to care for patients who have terminal illness.

A: Physicians who care for the dying (thanatologists) are few in number, but most physicians and nurses are involved regularly with dying patients and give appropriate attention to them and their families. Of course, there is room for improvement. I believe the better way to improve care of the terminally ill person is through education of the physician during medical school and residency training. Some progress is being made.

Three Dodger Pitchers Named To NL All-Star Staff

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Mike Marshall, last year's Cy Young Award winner, and two other Dodgers have been named to the nine-man National League All-Star pitching staff to face eight American League hurlers in the July 15 All-Star Game.

Los Angeles Manager Walter Alton on Monday announced his choice of Marshall, honored last year for his consistent relief pitching efforts, along with Dodger starting pitchers Andy Messersmith and Don Sutton, 12-8, to the National League All-Stars, who have won three straight mid-season classics.

Alton, manager of the National League All-Star team, also named Tom Seaver and southpaw teammate Jon Matlack of New York, left-hander Tug McGraw of Philadelphia, lefty Randy Jones of San Diego, southpaw Jerry Reuss of Pittsburgh and Phil Niekro of Atlanta.

The four National League southpaws and five right-handers will face an American League pitching crew including Vida Blue and Rolie Fingers of Oakland, Catfish Hunter of New York, Jim Kaat and Rich Gosage of Chicago, Nolan Ryan of California, Jim Palmer of Baltimore and Steve Busby of Kansas City.

All but two of the National League choices are repeaters on the All-Star squad. The exceptions are southpaws Jones and Reuss. Seaver's selection marks his eighth return to the squad.

Of the American League All-Star choices for the midseason classic at Milwaukee's County Stadium, Fingers, Hunter and Busby are repeaters from last year.

Seaver had the best winning percentage among the NL pitchers with a 12-4 record and an ERA of 1.85. Messersmith was 12-5 with a 2.08 average and Jones showed an 11-5 record and a stingy 1.77 ERA.

Confirms Entry

MONTREAL (AP) — Hale Irwin, winner of two tournaments on the professional circuit this year, has confirmed his entry in the $200,000 Canadian Open at the Royal Montreal Golf Club July 24-28, the Royal Canadian Golf Association says.

Irwin and Lou Graham, the man who ousted him as U.S. Open champion this year, will be among a strong field seeking the $40,000 first prize.

Messersmith leads the league in strikeouts with 122, followed by Seaver's 120 and Sutton's 118.

Marshall, who has a 3-5 record with four saves, and McGraw, 5-4 with eight saves, are the only two relief specialists representing the NL.

Reuss' record is 9-6 and Niekro's record is 8-7.

Signs Contract

DENVER (AP) — Reggie Barry, a defensive back obtained by the Denver Broncos in a trade with San Diego last month, has signed his 1975 contract with the Broncos.

PRESENTATION — Bill Cherry (right background) accepts a check for $300 from Mac Fitts, president of the Murray Optimist Club. The check is to be used by the Murray Baseball Association, which Cherry represents. In the picture are the Orioles and the Phils, two of the teams in the Pony League.

Kemp Says Rozelle Rule Has Benefited Players

By GERRY NELSON
Associated Press Writer
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Rep. Jack Kemp, R-N.Y., one-time president of a football players' association, testified for the National Football League Monday in defense of the league's "Rozelle rule."

Kemp said the rule has benefited players and led to an increase of players playing out their options and signing with different clubs.

"It seemed to me it was a reform," Kemp said.

The rule, under challenge in U.S. District Court, allows NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle to award players or draft choices to a team which loses a player to another team. A suit by 15 past and present players contends it restricts their ability to sign with other teams.

Kemp was president of the American Football League Players Association from 1965 to 1970. The AFL and NFL player associations merged in 1970.

Now a third-term congressman, Kemp played quarterback for seven different teams in three leagues before ending his career with the Buffalo Bills in 1969.

Kemp echoed the testimony of club owners and management officials who have testified against the players' suit.

Reviewing his leadership of the AFL players group, Kemp said he opposed any links with trade unions and said collective bargaining was used only for items such as pension plans, not individual salaries.

An "option clause" in all contracts allows the player to take a 10 per cent cut in salary for one year after expiration of his contract, then become a free agent. The "Rozelle rule" means that compensation must be provided by the team that gets the player.

Kemp said, as a player representative, he had never considered the rule worth striking over.

"I think ultimately, if you don't have the Rozelle rule, you will have to come up with something to preserve competition," the congressman said.

Rozelle is expected to wind up league testimony Thursday, to be followed by several days of rebuttal witnesses called by the players. The case is being heard without a jury by U.S. District Judge Earl R. Larson. More than 9,000 pages of testimony have been transcribed.

EXPO IS YOUNGEST

MONTREAL (AP) — Pitcher Dennis Blair of the Montreal Expos is the youngest player in the National League this season. He turned 21 on June 5. Blair, a native of Middletown, Ohio, had an 11-7 record as an Expos rookie last season.

In Blair's first major league start he beat Philadelphia Phillies on May 26, 1974, by a score of 5 to 1. He began the spring with Memphis where he won five decisions without a setback.

A CHALLENGING SPORT

CINCINNATI (AP) — Pete Rose of the Cincinnati Reds says baseball presents the greatest number of challenges of any sport and calls the game the most individual team sport. "In basketball," says the Reds third baseman, "you have guys setting pickoffs for you. In football, the ball carrier has guys blocking for him. But in baseball no one can help you hit the ball or help you catch it."

Great Ruffian Laid To Rest At Belmont Park

By FRED ROTHENBERG

AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Ruffian, the fabulous filly whose life was filled with the sounds of cheering and victory, has been laid to rest in the quiet of darkness.

Ruffian was buried at Belmont Park Monday night before a small, subdued gathering that included her trainer, Frank Whiteley, and her last rider, Jacinto Vasquez.

"Frank Whiteley requested that we make it as private as possible and we think that is only right," said New York Racing Association Board Chairman Jack Dreyfus Jr.

Only a few friends of racing came to watch Ruffian's private burial at Belmont, the site of her final, abortive race. The digging, done by an automatic crane, began at sundown and ended 90 minutes later in the dead of night as Ruffian was lowered into the ground on Belmont's infield.

The burial party dropped a bouquet of roses into the grave, the final resting place for the filly said by many to be the best ever to grace a racing program.

The quiet of Belmont Park Monday night provided a stark contrast to the festive atmosphere only 27 hours earlier, when Ruffian shouldered Vasquez and the hopes of millions of females against the colts.

Foolish Pleasure.

A nationwide television audience — millions of people — saw Ruffian break down a half-mile into the $350,000 match race, a victim of a shattered right ankle, as Foolish Pleasure raced on to a less-tragic finish line. Barely a score saw her buried.

Ruffian underwent an operation late Sunday night but in the end, this magnificent competitor, who was too much horse for every filly she ever raced, proved too much horse for herself.

Upon awakening from the anesthesia, she lashed out and smashed her cast, causing severe damage to the injured leg. "The cast had become an entangled mess and there was intensive swelling and hemorrhaging," said Dr. Alex Harthill, part of the veterinarian team that worked feverishly to save Ruffian.

It was then that Ruffian, who was always favored to win on the track, became a longshot to live. "If we were to put her through anesthesia and another operation, it would only be worse the next time," Harthill said.

Stuart Janney Jr., Ruffian's owner, decided on the course of action. "Don't let her suffer any more," he said.

The broken ankle injured Ruffian but her fierce, competitive spirit killed her.

"She didn't accept confinement," said Dr. Harthill. "She fought with vengeance, like a tiger."

If Ruffian had not been such a splendid race horse, she may have been put to sleep immediately after the injury. But extensive efforts were made to save the 3-year-old filly, victorious in all 10 races before Sunday, because of the hope she could transmit some of her greatness to her offspring.

"Many horses with injuries as serious as Ruffian's have been saved for breeding purposes," said trainer Elliott Burch.

Reds And Cubs Winners In Little League Play

The Cubs and Reds picked up wins in Little League action Monday night.

In the opening contest, the Cubs smashed the Twins 15-5 while in the nightcap, the Reds clipped the Cards 5-4.

Kevin Calvin slammed four hits in pacing the Cubs to their win.

The Cubs scored five times in the first and exploded for seven more in the second in gaining the easy win.

Calvin started the rally in the first with a single. Joel Klein reached on an error and Kim Wilson singled to load the sacks. Keith Overby sent in the first run of the game with a single then Darrell Overby was hit by a pitch to give the Cubs a 2-0 lead.

The key hit in the frame was a two-run single by Jerry Spann. Wilson was right behind Calvin in the hit department. Wilson slammed three hits while Spann and Darren Hooper each had two. Also hitting safely were Klein, Keith Overby and Mark McCuiston.

For the Twins, Kim Kendall, Chris Fazi and Brett Puckett all had one hit apiece.

The nightcap was a close game all the way through as the Reds edged the Cards.

The Cards took the lead by scoring two in the top of the first inning. Mark Denham had a single for the only hit in the frame and David Ellis had a sacrifice fly.

In the Reds' half of the first, Steve Walker ripped a two-run homer to tie the game.

The Cards regained the lead in the second as David Denham singled and later scored on a single by Jeff Graves to boost the Cards to a 3-2 lead.

But in the bottom of the third, the Reds scored twice and moved ahead 4-3. Three walks, an error and a balk produced the runs for the Reds.

The Cards tied the score in the top of the sixth as David Denham reached on a double and scored on Graves' single. But in the bottom of the inning, the Reds pushed across a run to win it.

Rodney Robinson reached base with a one-out walk. He headed toward second as the throw went into the outfield. Robinson turned and headed toward third and the throw there went high and he scored to send in the winning run.

Walker's homer was the only hit in the contest for the Reds.

For the Cards, Graves and David Denham each had two hits. Also hitting safely were Mark Denham and Mitch Paschall.

Tonight's 8 p.m. contest will find the A's meeting the Pirates. Then in the nightcap, it will be the biggest game of the season as the Yankees and Astros collide in a battle for first place.

Currently, the Yanks, Astros and Pirates are all 9-3 in the league standings while the Cubs are 8-4. This is the final week of the Little League season.

HONOR FOR CAPPY

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Racing Assn. honored former race caller Fred Caposella during an Aqueduct program this spring. As part of the celebration, track officials gave away T-shirts to 500 youngsters. Each bore Cappy's favorite phrase, "It is now post time."

One youngster approached the counter and said he'd like a shirt: "It is now post time, size 16."

Sportswriter Dead

PLYMOUTH, Mass. (AP) — John F. "Jack" Barry, longtime Boston Globe sports writer, died Monday at Jordan Hospital.

He had suffered a heart attack last Tuesday at his summer home in Manomet.

Barry, 66, wrote on sports for more than 40 years. He conducted baseball clinics for many years for little leaguers in New England, with umpire Artie Gore and Joe Coleman, a former major league pitcher.

Sheldon And Willoughby Both Making Big Splashes In Majors

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON

AP Sports Writer

Milwaukee's Bob Sheldon and Boston's Jim Willoughby, who were in the minors last week, made major contributions to their new teams Monday night.

Second baseman Sheldon, who committed a costly error in the fourth inning, singled home one run in the fifth and two more in the sixth, lifting the Brewers to a 4-3 victory over the Kansas City Royals.

Meanwhile, Willoughby came on in the seventh inning of the Red Sox' 6-3 triumph over the Minnesota Twins, struck out Eric Soderholm with two runners aboard and went on to earn his first save, fanning five in 21-3 innings.

Elsewhere in the American League, the New York Yankees defeated the Texas Rangers 5-2 to remain one game behind Boston and one percentage point ahead of Milwaukee in the East Division, the Oakland A's trimmed the Cleveland Indians 7-3 and the Detroit Tigers edged the Chicago White Sox 2-1. Baltimore and California were not scheduled.

Sheldon's error helped Kansas City score all three runs in the fourth inning — two on a single by Cookie Rojas — for a 3-1 lead, but he made up for it with his clutch hits off Al Fitzmorris.

Jim Rice belted a three-run homer as the Red Sox scored four times off Jim Hughes in the first inning. Jim Burton, who relieved Rick Wise in the seventh, issued a single and walk, putting two Minnesota runners aboard and bringing up the dangerous Soderholm. Willoughby not only struck out Soderholm to end that inning, but fanned him again to end the game after the Twins scored a run in the ninth.

Yankees 5, Rangers 2
Home runs by Roy White, Graig Nettles and Jim Mason and run-scoring singles by Nettles and Rich Coggins rallied the Yankees to victory after Texas nicked Doc Medich for both their runs in the first inning on Jeff Burroughs' two-run single.

A's 7, Indians 3
Jim Perry pitched six shutout innings, Joe Rudi hit two home runs and Billy Williams hit one for Oakland. The 38-year-old Perry, who came to the A's in a trade with Cleveland earlier in the season, won his second game in three decisions, with Oakland and boosted his overall record to 3-7. He allowed one run on six hits, struck out four and didn't walk a batter in 7 1/3 innings before giving way to Rolfe Fingers.

Tigers 2, White Sox 1
Tom Walker, 3-6, scattered eight hits and outdudded Chicago's Jim Kaat, 13-5, who was named to the AL All-Star team earlier in the day. The only run off Walker, 3-6, was Ken Henderson's homer in the second inning. Detroit scored both runs in the fourth on Gary Sutherland's single, Leon Roberts' triple and Willie Horton's sacrifice fly. It was the Tigers' sixth consecutive triumph.

Back To Racing

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Country music singer Marty Robbins reportedly has decided to return to Grand National automobile racing.

Robbins had said in early May he was giving up racing, a hobby, because it was too dangerous. He had been involved in a crash a few days earlier at the Talladega 500.

He was unavailable for comment Monday, but a spokesman at his office said he was wavering about a decision. She also said he has ordered a new race car from Cotton Owens, who has built his cars previously.

Timeout With Brandon

By MIKE BRANDON

Doug Cross To Face Surgery Today

Doug Cross may be leaving the Good Samaritan Hospital in Mount Vernon, Ill., a lot sooner than anybody thinks.

Cross, the 24-year-old motorcycle daredevil who plans to jump over a helicopter in Murray sometime in the future, was injured while performing his "Towering Inferno" jump in Marion, Ill., on June 21.

In the accident, he suffered a broken left leg, three cracked vertebrae, a broken hand, two broken jaws and he had five teeth knocked out and the rest shattered.

This past weekend, Cross called me up and said he was going to be operated on today for the leg. And believe it or not, although it was originally announced he would be in the hospital for three to six months (Associated Press in Illinois), Cross may be out of the hospital this week.

He was just removed from the intensive care unit last week.

It was 3:30 a.m. Saturday morning when the phone rang. I couldn't believe it was Doug. Matter of fact, I made him tell me what his mother's name was and his little brother's name and on down the line.

I asked him what kind of cycle he had and everything because I thought somebody was probably playing some kind of a sick joke. But low and behold, it was him.

"Been practicing on how to talk for three days," Cross said.

"Ready to get out here. Want to jump again."

Several times he started laughing and I wondered just how in the heck a guy could lay there in bed with his leg in traction at 3:30 in the morning and laugh.

"Only go round once in life. Might as well enjoy it," he said in the broken sentences.

Cross went on to say that he was more determined than ever to get back in the business.

He said he planned on getting on the cycle as soon as he could and he said he hoped he would be able to make the helicopter jump sometime in the near future.

He also said though that he may try the "Towering Inferno" jump one more time before he goes for the helicopter.

"I'd like to bite the dog that bit me."

With every sentence, his voice grew stronger and before the conversation was over, you couldn't even tell it was a guy trying to talk with his mouth wired shut.

Cross said he was planning to come to Murray sometime in the near future and to again, possibly make plans for the helicopter jump. The jump had originally been scheduled for July 26.

Hillman Lyons, the promotional manager for Cross, said he has had a number of calls from other cities that would like to book the helicopter jump.

Local Baseball

Again I would like to take a little time and go over some things on the subject of local baseball.

First of all, my policy is to take pictures of first games only in the leagues. If I were to use flash during a night game, it could possibly bother players.

Next, there are many days when I don't have enough room to run pictures. Each afternoon, I know how much space I'll have for the next day so there are a lot of times I just can't take pictures.

Again, I'd like to compliment the organization in the Little League for the fine job of publicity.

But for the other leagues, I can only give as much information in the paper as they give me. It is humanly impossible for me to go out and cover every game each night.

So each league has a scorekeeper who is supposed to call the games in to the paper. So if you don't see a story on the league of your particular interest, it's simply because the information wasn't given to the paper.

Win Meals At Rudy's

It's been a while since we've had the free meal at Rudy's contest so we'll get it today.

The question: Roger Maris once hit 61 homers in a season to win the homerun title. But who won the homerun title with the fewest number of homers. Give me the player and the number of homers. If you know the answer, call me at 753-8977 at 5 p.m. Thursday.

Even Anderson Can't Believe Reds' Success

By ALEX SACHARE
AP Sports Writer

The Big Red Machine is in high gear, rolling along so smoothly that even the man at the controls can't quite believe it.

"It's incredible," said Cincinnati Manager Sparky Anderson after his Reds' latest triumph, a 7-3 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies Monday night. That gave Cincinnati four wins in a row, seven in the last eight games and an amazing record of 35 victories in 44 outings dating back to May 21.

"No one is supposed to win like that," added Anderson. But the Reds are doing it, and as a result have opened a gaping 8½-game bulge over the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League West.

What turned the Reds, stumbling along at the .500 mark seven weeks ago, into the winningest team in the majors?

"You've got to go back to the move — shifting Pete Rose to third," said Anderson. "It's not just that one thing, but that set off a lot of other things that happened. Getting George Foster's bat in there has been tremendous."

Foster got his 15th homer against the Phils, a two-run shot over the center field fence in the seventh inning that broke the game open.

But the big blast of the game came in the first inning, off the bat of Tony Perez. The Reds' slugging first baseman got hold of a Steve Carlton delivery and deposited it in the upper tier of Riverfront Stadium, more than 500 feet away.

Astros 5, Expos 1
Houston got only four hits against Montreal, but all came in the fourth inning when the Astros sent 10 men to the plate and scored all their runs. Wilbur Howard's two-run single capped the uprising in support of Larry Dierker, who scattered eight hits.

Mets 3, Braves 1
Home runs by Rusty Staub and Dave Kingman backed the six-hit pitching of rookie Hank Webb, who posted his second major league victory — both over Atlanta.

"I needed this game," said Webb. "It's my first complete game in the big leagues, and it builds my confidence. There are such good pitchers on this staff, when I do get in I like to contribute."

Cards 8, Giants 6
Ted Simmons drove in three runs and Luis Melendez' triple highlighted a four-run first inning for the Cards, who collected six hits off Giants starter Mike Caldwell, 5-8, in the opening inning.

Afterwards, Giants Manager Wes Westrum became enraged at a question put to him by a local reporter, shouted and cursed at the writer and had him ejected from the San Francisco clubhouse.

Pirates 5, Cubs 0
Al Oliver belted a three-run homer and Ken Brett, Ramon Hernandez and Dave Giusti combined to stop the Cubs on five hits, all singles.

It was the 14th game in 11 days between the two clubs, and the Pirates won 11 of the meetings.

Player Has Little Time To Practice For Tourney

By GEOFFREY MILLER
AP Sports Writer

CARNOUSTIE, Scotland (AP) — Gary Player, defending his title, will begin the British Open golf championship over the tough Carnoustie course Wednesday with less than two complete rounds of practice.

"It's the smallest preparation I have ever had for the British Open," the little South African said.

"It's not the wisest way to do it. In fact it's quite foolish."

Player, 38, arrived from Switzerland a mere 48 hours before the start of the big tournament.

By contrast, Jack Nicklaus, rated top favorite with the bookies, has been practicing on the 7,065-yard, par-72 links since last Friday.

On Saturday Nicklaus shot a seven-under-par 65 and a five-under-par 67 in a long hard working day — and said he had made his good scores too early.

Player won the British Open the last time it was staged at Carnoustie in 1968. He had previously won the title at Muirfield in 1959, and he won again at Lytham St. Annes last year.

"For major tournaments I think you should have four days on the site," Player said.

"What I am doing is taking a calculated risk. I had only 17 holes practice before the U.S. Open, and I didn't do very well in that."

"But practice on the tournament course is not the most important thing. It's how you're playing that counts. The main thing is to hit the ball straight and putt well."

"Sometimes I have played a strange course without any practice at all, and gone out and set a course record."

Orioles, Astros Get Wins In Pony League

The Astros and Orioles both picked up wins in Pony League play Monday night.

In the opening contest, the Orioles had little trouble as they posted a 9-2 win over the Mets.

David Mathis allowed just three hits in going the distance for the Orioles. Mathis walked just one batter while fanning four.

The Mets took the lead in the bottom of the first as they scored a single tally. Mickey Spann reached on an error and later scored when Randy Garland reached on an error.

The Orioles gained the lead in the top of the second as they scored a pair. Jeff Kursave had a single, Robert Whitmer reached on an error and Kelly White walked to load the bases. Kursave scored on a passed ball and the second run scored when Mark Outland struck out but reached base on a passed ball.

In the third, the Orioles added two more as Terry Gibson had a single and Dean Cherry a triple.

Gibson and Cherry each had two hits for the Orioles while Kursave, Whitmer and Outland all hit safely. For the Mets, Danny Potts, Dwayne Dycus and Lee Hopkins all had a hit apiece.

In the second game, the Astros scored eight runs in the first inning and went blank for the next three in gaining an 8-6 win over the Phils in an abbreviated contest.

Craig Rogers was credited with the win on the mound for the Astros.

Thomas Kendall got the Astros started in the first with an inside-the-park homerun. Steve Gough had a run-scoring double in the frame and David Stripling had a two-run triple.

The Phils scored two runs in each of the first, second and third innings. Ricky Garland drove in two with a single in the first, Robert Herndon had an RBI double in the second and Eric Pratt a run-scoring single in the third.

For the Astros, Stripling paced the attack with three hits while Gough had two and Kendall one. For the Phils, Robert Herndon had two hits while Garland and Pratt also hit safely.

Milk Production Shot Up By Four Per Cent In Last Year

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Fewer cows were tended by fewer farmers in the state last year, but milk production shot up 4 per cent to 2.4 billion pounds due to selective breeding and scientific feeding of the animals, says a University of Kentucky dairy specialist.

According to figures compiled by the university's College of Agriculture, 12 per cent fewer farmers were in the milk business in 1974, and 13,000 fewer cows were milked.

Dairy specialist John Nicholai said in an interview that he sees the increase as part of a 25-year trend toward fewer cows producing more milk.

"Seventy per cent of it is scientific feeding," Nicholai said. "If we could get everyone to feed correctly, we could get the average yield up over 10,000 pounds in 18 months."

In Kentucky in 1973, the average dairy cow produced 7,516 pounds of milk. Last year, that average figure jumped to 7,980 pounds per year, an increase of 6 per cent.

Nicholai predicts a per cow production increase of up to 600 pounds this year. In 1974, Kentucky still ranked well below the national per cow average of 10,286 pounds.

Nicholai said dairy farming is relatively new in Kentucky and Tennessee.

"Most of these are first and second generation farms. For many, many years, the big-milk producers—Wisconsin, Minnesota and Maryland—expected milk and milk products to this area," he explained.

"Up until 50 years ago or less, for most Kentucky farmers, their dairy cows just came second to their tobacco crops," he said.

Nationwide, Nicholai said 35 per cent of all dairy cows are on a regular testing program, designed to check on the quantity and quality of the milk produced by each individual cow.

Individual programs and feeding times can then be worked out to improve yields, the UK specialist explained.

However, in Kentucky, he said only 10 per cent of all dairy cows are being tested for this kind of information.

"It's little things like this, called management, that make it tick," Nicholai said. "But they all require a great deal of time and energy, unfortunately more than many of Kentucky's small-time old-fashioned farmers with dairy cows are willing to put out."

Dairymen, Inc., co-op official Tim Mogan said Kentucky's per cow milk production figure is misleading because the yields of many sideline dairy farmers are included.

"In that average are Kentucky farmers averaging 17,000 pounds a cow and other averaging only 4,000 to 5,000 pounds a year per cow," he said.

However, Nicholai said the number of "pocket-money" dairy farmers is shrinking fast.

Economic pressures on such dairymen began to mount in the mid 1950s, he said, and reached the critical stage in 1967-68.

At that time, Nicholai said, the cost of dairy farmers' raw materials—dairy feed, hay, barbed wire—began to skyrocket, while the price of milk remained largely unchanged.

"Kentucky's dairymen has had to become more efficient and produce more milk per man to stay in business. And the dairy business is not like soybeans, cattle or pigs. Once you're out of the business, few get back in," he said.

UK's agricultural statisticians say 500 Kentucky farmers got out of the dairy business in 1973-74—the same year in which the U.S.D.A. recorded a 38 per cent increase in Kentucky's wholesale price for milk and state dairymen grossed $180.3 million for their year's work, up 21 per cent from 1973.

Mogan said 1974 was the best year ever for Kentucky's dairy farmer, but that it has been downhill since then.

Largely to blame are falling milk prices, rising operating costs and relaxed federal import policies toward foreign milk and milk products, Mogan said.

Between May 1974 and May 1975, federal officials recorded a 9 per cent drop in the wholesale price for milk produced by Kentucky's dairy farmers. At the same time, increases of 5 per cent, 9 per cent and 17 per cent were registered for such operating essentials as mixed dairy feed, barbed wire and hay baling twine.

The federal government's new import policy hits hardest at domestic producers who sell directly to manufacturers, Nicholai said, adding that in the past, up to 50 per cent of Kentucky's milk has been sold to cheese and canned milk processors.

"If every dairymen in Kentucky did what was right, our per cow average could go to 12,000 pounds," he said.

"California's all-state average is now about 13,000 pounds and they don't even have any rain to ruin their hay."

Mogan was guarded in his predictions, warning that Kentucky may be reaching the end of the road as far as the benefits of a scientific program are concerned.

"We're reaching a plateau in terms of how far you can push that cow with breeding and feeding," Mogan said. "There are a lot of six minute miles, but the ranks really thin out when you begin talking about a four-minute mile."

New Law Could Save Up To $9,000 On House Mortgages

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you're interested in getting a $30,000 loan to buy a house, a new federal law could save you up to $9,000 in interest costs over the life of the mortgage.

Or if you can't make payments on a house you already own because you've lost your job, that same law might help you keep that home.

President Ford signed the Emergency Housing Act of 1975 into law Wednesday, saying it would help push along a recovery of the depressed housing and construction industries.

Supporters of the bill, which gives the Government National Mortgage Association (GNMA) $10 billion in new mortgage purchase authority, say it could spur construction of up to 300,000 new homes in the next year.

Dan Kearney, GNMA president, outlined how the public company known as Ginnie Mae would use the funds:

You might want to get a $30,000 mortgage to buy a house, but a savings and loan would now charge you about 9 per cent for the 30-year loan.

However, Ginnie Mae would promise the lending institution to buy your mortgage and others like it from the savings and loan — if the mortgages were for a 7 1/2 per cent interest rate.

That would mean you would only pay the 7 1/2 per cent rate, or about $25 a month less in interest on the mortgage, Kearney said in an interview. That saving totals about $9,000 over the 30-year life of the mortgage.

Kearney said the lending institution is willing to make such loans because you pay the institution up to 1 1/2 per cent of the mortgage — or $450 on a $30,000 mortgage — as a one-time origination fee. And the savings and loan would also charge Ginnie Mae up to three-eighths of a percentage point for handling the loan each month.

Another provision of the bill could help those thrown out of work by the recession avoid losing their home because they cannot make mortgage payments. But this provision must be triggered by Ford.

"If foreclosure rates rise significantly, this legislation will enable us to act quickly to keep owners from losing their homes," Ford said at the signing ceremony in the White House Rose Garden.

Kearney explained that a bank or other institution could loan an unemployed homeowner up to $250 a month to continue making mortgage payments. The government would guarantee that loan, he said.

But the GNMA president said foreclosure rates have thus far been stable through the recession, indicating no need yet for the program.

Ford vetoed a Democratic-backed housing bill last week that would have provided direct subsidies to middle-income home-buyers. The measure Ford signed Wednesday was hurriedly worked out by Congress after it failed to override the veto.

Portrait Helps Uphold Legend Of Betsy Ross

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A portrait of Betsy Ross discovered in an antique shop may shed some light on the famous story that she sewed the first American flag, a researcher says.

The portrait of the legendary seamstress was discovered 12 years ago, but went unnoticed until a recent account in "The Flag Bulletin," a publication of the Flag Research Center of Winchester, Mass.

Popular acceptance of Betsy Ross' role in the birth of the nation notwithstanding, there has never been historical documentation that she actually sewed the nation's first Stars and Stripes at the request of George Washington.

And many historians have long been skeptical of the legend, including Dr. Whitney Smith, director of the Flag Research Center.

Smith says the painting was done in 1832, four years before she died, by Samuel Waldo, a well known artist of the time. On the back side of the canvas is the inscription, "Portrait of Betsy Ross," which Smith says may give a clue as to whether Mrs. Ross actually sewed the first flag.

In 1832, Betsy Ross was known as Betsy Claypoole. She had not been Betsy Ross since 1777, when she remarried after the death of her husband, John Ross, according to historical accounts.

According to legend, it was while she was a widow in 1774 that Washington and two members of the Continental Congress came to her home in Philadelphia and asked her to sew the flag.

Smith says the question is: Why did Waldo refer to Betsy Claypoole as Betsy Ross unless the flag story was current at that time and Waldo wanted to do a likeness of her before she died?

"Having this portrait means that the likelihood of the story being around in her lifetime is strongly suggested," Smith says.

He says that although the portrait does not settle the question of whether Mrs. Ross had anything to do with the first American flag, "it certainly opens new vistas
